

REFERENCES

1. Richards, Owen: The Routine Use of Spinal Anesthesia, British M. J. 2: 1646-1652 (Dec. 23) 1911.
2. Allen, Freeman: A Review of Ten Years Work in Anesthesia, Boston M. & S. J. 185: 978-981.
3. Pitkin, Geo. P.: A Nonoxidizable Epinephrine to Prolong Spinal Anesthesia with a Subarachnoid Capacity Control, Anesth. & Analg. 19: 241-260 (Sept.-Oct.); 19: 315-319 (Nov.-Dec.) 1940.
4. de la Pena, Adalberto: Personal communication.
5. Barker, Arthur: Experiments with Spinal Analgesia in Reference to 2,354 Cases, British M. J. 1: 597-602 (Mar. 16) 1912.

---

MEETING OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF ANESTHESIOLOGISTS, INC.

NEW YORK ACADEMY OF MEDICINE

FIFTH AVENUE AT 402ND STREET, NEW YORK CITY

OCTOBER 11, 1945

Business Session: 8:15 P.M.

Scientific Session: 8:30 P.M.

“Postmortem Examination in Deaths Attributed to Anesthetics.”
20 minutes.

By George Kendall Higgins, M.D., Ph.D., Professor of Pathology,
New York Medical College.

“Operating Room Deaths: Case Reports.” 30 minutes.

By Harold F. Bishop, Major, M.C., Halloran General Hospital, New York.

Film: “The Upright Operating Position Using the “Craig Head
Rest’ and Inhalation Anesthesia.” 25 minutes.

Harold F. Bishop, Major, M.C.