Preface: Proceedings of the VI International Conference on Biotechnology and Bioengineering (ICBB2017)

The VI International Conference on Biotechnology and Bioengineering (ICBB-2017) was held successfully during September 26-28 in Offenburg, Germany. It was jointly organized by Asia-Pacific Association of Science, Engineering and Technology, Chinese Journal of Biologicals, Offenburg University of Applied Sciences and University of Catania.

The conference has been designed to provide an innovative and comprehensive overview of biotechnology and bioengineering, and a focus has been given to major research advances, including New Approaches and Concepts in Biotechnology; Cell and Immunology; Genomics and Molecular Biology; Enzyme and Protein Engineering; Biomedicine, Pharmaceutical Biotechnology and Toxicology; Bioinformatics and Systems Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biomedical Techniques and Technologies, and other related aspects.

More information about the conference can be found at <http://www.icbb.hs-offenburg.de/>

The opening ceremony was graced by Conference Honorary Chair, Prof. Dr. Winfried Lieber, rector of Offenburg University of Applied Sciences, who delivered warm welcome remarks to all the attendees. Prof. Dr. Bruno Ismer, Conference Chair & Head of Peter Osypka Institute for Pacing and Ablation at Offenburg University of Applied Sciences, praised the growth of ICBB and welcomed all delegates to the international event.

The delegates were from 30 countries that attended the conference, and the in-depth discussions among the attendees effectively advanced the academic exchange. The conference lasted for 2 days, and set various forms which contained 31 invited & oral presentations and 65 poster presentations.

Finally, we would like to thank all of the reviewers and members of international scientific committee who have dedicated their constant support and countless time to bring these scratches into a book. The ICBB 2017 proceeding is a credit to a large group of people, and everyone should be proud of the outcome.
