

THE HISPANIC AMERICAN HISTORICAL REVIEW

Vol. XXIV

February, 1944

No. 1

EDITORIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

With this issue of THE HISPANIC AMERICAN HISTORICAL REVIEW Mr. Dana G. Munro, Director of the School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University, becomes advisory editor. He is succeeded on the regular Board of Editors by Mr. Lewis Hanke, Director of the Hispanic Foundation, Library of Congress. These men are distinguished both here and abroad as specialists in Hispanic-American studies and it is with great satisfaction that they are welcomed to the editorial boards of the REVIEW.

Special numbers of this journal are occasionally planned in order to bring together and publish the work of several scholars upon a subject of common interest. In the present number, which is devoted to Mexican history, no attempt has been made to concentrate upon a limited phase of this broad field.
