COLLECTED ESSAYS

Controlling Latin American Conflicts: Current Juridical Trends and Perspectives for the Future, Juan Carlos Puig; Controlling Conflict in the Caribbean Basin: National Approaches, Victor Millán; Controlling Conflict in South America: National Approaches, Augusto Varas; Regional Confidence-Building in the Military Field: The Case of Latin America, Victor Millán; The Latin American Economic System as a Mechanism to Control Conflicts, Carlos Moneta; Proliferation of Weaponry and Technology, Michael A. Morris and Martin Slann; Naval Arms Control in Latin America, Michael A. Morris; Monitoring Latin American Arms Control Agreements, Max G. Manwaring; Islas Malvinas or Falkland Islands: The Negotiation of a Conflict, 1945-1982, Rubén de Hoyos; The Containment of Conflict After Revolution: Lessons from Mexico and Bolivia, Susan Eckstein; Equity and Freedom in U.S.-Latin American Relations, Michael A. Morris.

Introduction, Albert Berry; A Descriptive History of Colombian Industrial Development in the Twentieth Century, Albert Berry; The Great Depression and Industrialization in Colombia, David S. C. Chu; The Effects of Learning on Employment and Labor Productivity in the Colombian Metal Products Sector, Leonard Dudley; Technological Change in the Thermal Electricity Generating Industry, Manuel Ramirez G.; Plant Size, Factor Proportions, and Efficiency in Colombian Industry, John Todd; The Utilization of Fixed Industrial Capital in Colombia: Some Empirical Findings, Francisco Thoumi; Trade and the Import Control System in Colombia: Some Quantifiable Features, Carlos F. Diaz-Alejandro; The Experience of Industrialization in Colombia: Summary and Conclusions, Albert Berry.