AMIA President’s Awards, 2002

Jeffrey S. Blair, MBA
Mr. Blair is recognized for his work with the National Committee on Vital and Health Statistics and service as chair of the workgroup on Computer-based Patient Records and as Vice-chair of the subcommittee on Standards and Security.

Christopher G. Chute, MD, DrPH
Dr. Chute is acknowledged for his leadership and contributions over the past decades in terminology development.

James J. Cimino, MD
Dr. Cimino is selected for his contributions to terminology standards including his work with Unified Medical Language System (UMLS) and Medical Entities Dictionary (MED) in addition to his contributions in defining a desiderata for controlled health terminologies.

Simon P. Cohn, MD, MPH, FACEP
Dr. Cohn is honored for his work with the National Committee on Vital and Health Statistics and service as chair of the subcommittee on Standards and Security in addition to his contributions over the years on terminology.

Stanley M. Huff, MD
Dr. Huff is chosen for his leadership and contributions in standards and terminologies and his work with Logical Observation Identifier Names and Codes (LOINC).

Betsy L. Humphreys, MLS
Ms. Humphreys is recognized for her leadership and contributions to health terminologies, specifically the Unified Medical Language System (UMLS).

Clement J. McDonald, MD
Dr. McDonald is acknowledged for his contributions to the development of standards and terminologies, specifically for his work with Logical Observation Identifier Names and Codes (LOINC).

Judy G. Ozbolt, RN, PhD, FAAN
Dr. Ozbolt is chosen for her work in developing nursing terminology and her leadership in the Nursing Summit activities.

Kent A. Spackman, MD, PhD
Dr. Spackman is honored for his contributions to the development of terminology standards, specifically for his work with Systematized Nomenclature of Medicine (SNOMED).