NEWS NOTES

NEW U.S. PHARMACOPEIA

U.S.P. XVIII, a completely revised Pharmacopeia, was published in April, and will become effective September 1. The Pharmacopeia continues to provide standards and tests for demonstrating the strength, quality, and purity of those drugs representing the best in current medical teaching and practice. A total of 1,103 monographs, of which 847 were carried over from the 905 titles official in the preceding edition, are included in U.S.P. XVIII. The fifty-eight previously recognized items now eliminated comprise a smaller number of deletions than usual.
