

Wednesday, November 3: Afternoon Session: Melba Van Wagoner, R.N., presiding: "What Is Our Aim? And Why? What Is Control?" Fred W. Whitehouse, M.D.; "Insulin and Oral Agents: Action, Types and Selection of Patients," John B. Bryan, M.D.; "Diet Principles, Exercise, Training," Keats K. Vining, Jr., M.D.; a panel entitled "The Team Concept," including J. E. Yanez, M.D., Doris Bakker, M.S.N., and Marilyn Cooper, R.D., with Lawrence Power, M.D., as Moderator.

Thursday, November 4: Morning Session: John B. Rowe, M.D., presiding: "Acute Complications: Coma, Ketoacidosis and Insulin Reactions," E. Marshall Goldberg, M.D.; a panel, "Leg and Foot Care," with John R. Pfeifer, M.D., Moderator, including L. James Hallen, M.D., Myron J. Bakst, D.P.M., and Sandra Sherman, R.N.

Workshop Sessions will begin at 11:15 a.m., and comprise: "Diet Therapy for Nurses," Betty Brosius, M.S., Chairman; "Diet Therapy for Dietitians," Mary Stireman, R.D., Chairman; "Teaching the Diabetic: Motivation, Psychological Problems," Melba Van Wagoner, R.N., Chairman; "Services for the Diabetic—A Community Responsibility," Peter Vaughan, ACSW, Chairman.

Thursday, November 4: Afternoon Session: Nancy Caputo, M.D., presiding: "Neuropathy," Henry D. Kaine, M.D.; "Renal Complications," Sidney Baskin, M.D.; "Visual Complications," Hugh Beckman, M.D., Henri S. Bernard, M.D., and Iris Whitehouse, R.N.

On Wednesday evening a Social Hour and Dinner will be held, with Dr. Peebles-Meyers presiding. Guest speaker will be T. S. Danowski, M.D., who will present "Diabetes and Pseudo-Diabetes."

NEWS NOTES

DIABETES PROGRAM IN NASHVILLE

"Diabetes, 1971: From Cyclic AMP to Outpatient Management," will be presented October 27 at The University Club of Nashville, Tennessee, under the sponsorship of The Tennessee Mid-South Diabetes Education Program; The Division of Continuing Education, Vanderbilt University School of Medicine; The Middle Tennessee Diabetes Association; The Tennessee Academy of General Practice; and The Tennessee Mid-South Regional Medical Program. Alan L. Graber, M.D., is program coordinator. Although the program is designed primarily for physicians, the sponsors encourage the participation of nurses, dietitians, and other health personnel who may find many areas of interest in the lectures.

The program includes the presentation of "Natural History of Juvenile Diabetes," by Harvey C. Knowles, Jr., M.D., Cincinnati, Guest Speaker. The Vanderbilt University Faculty who will participate include: Arthur L. Brooks, M.D., "Evaluation and Rx of Lower Extremity Lesions in Diabetic Patients"; Ian Burr, M.D., "Dynamics of Insulin Secretion—Physiological Control and Clinical Significance"; Oscar B. Crofford, M.D., "Cyclic AMP and Carbohydrate Metabolism"; James H. Elliott, M.D., "Photocoagulation in Diabetic Retinopathy"; Philip W. Felts, M.D., "Pathophysiology and Treatment of Ketoacidosis, Hyperosmolar Coma, and Lactic Acidosis in Diabetes"; Alan L. Graber, M.D., "Outpatient Management of Nonketotic Diabetes, One Year After the UGDP Study"; John Liljenquist, M.D., "Evaluation of Hyperglycemia in the Elderly"; Virginia B. Rawlings, R.D., and Staff, "Diabetic Exchange Luncheon"; Lawrence K. Wolfe, M.D., "Clinical Management of Diabetes During Pregnancy and Major Surgery."

A panel discussion with Questions and Answers will be held from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. Further information may be obtained from: Registrar, Vanderbilt Continuing Education, 1100 Baker Building, 110 21st Avenue South, Nashville, Tennessee 37203.

PERSONALS

HAROLD BROWN, M.D., Houston, JEROME W. CONN, M.D., Ann Arbor, EDGAR S. GORDON, M.D., Madison, Wisconsin, W. P. L. MYERS, M.D., New York, and NAGUIB A. SAMAAN, M.D., Houston, will take part in "Endocrinology and Nonendocrine Hormone Producing Tumors," the topic of the Sixteenth Annual Clinical Conference to be held November 11-12 in Houston. Dr. Samaan will be chairman of the Conference. The meeting is sponsored by The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute at Houston and the University's Division of Continuing Education of the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences.

JOHN L. MAGNESS, M.D., Fargo, will present "Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy" during a postgraduate course of The American College of Physicians to be held at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, November 17-19. The Course is entitled "Rehabilitation and the Internists."

THEODORE B. VAN ITALLIE, M.D., New York, presented the Sixth Martha Trulson Memorial Lecture during the Fifty-fourth Annual Meeting of The American Dietetic Association in Philadelphia on October 7. Dr. Van Itallie also moderated and participated in a panel discussion of "Multidisciplinary Approach to the Problem of Obesity."

NECROLOGY

BERNARDO ALBERTO HOUSSAY, Buenos Aires, Argentina, born April 10, 1887.

JEROME V. TREUSCH, Los Angeles, born Aug. 18, 1914.