Bassinets

Units: About 500,000

Manufacturer: Burlington Basket Co., of Burlington, Iowa

Hazard: If the cross-bracing rails are not fully locked into position, the bassinets can collapse.

Description: Burlington Basket bassinets have folding legs attached to the basket with white plastic pins and were manufactured before June 2010.

Sold at: Walmart and other mass merchandisers, department stores and juvenile product stores nationwide and online by various Web retailers, including Amazon.com, from January 2003 through August 2010 for $50.

Remedy: Check the cross-bracing support rails to make sure they are in the locked position. Contact the company for a free kit with instructions on assembly of the support rails. A video showing proper assembly is available at <http://burlingtonbasket.org/BASSINETRECALL.aspx>.
