The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) has announced the recall of the following products. Consumers should stop using recalled products unless otherwise instructed. Consumers can submit reports of harm to CPSC's new searchable online product safety database at www.SaferProducts.gov. A searchable food and medical product recall database is available at www.fda.gov/Safety/Recalls/default.htm.

Children's utensils

Units: About 1,100 sets

Hazard: The utensil's handle can come off, and infants can choke on it.

Description: Edoche's Cubetensils sets of children's eating utensils include a spoon and a matching fork with stainless steel heads and plastic handles. The handle has three segments that rotate to create design combinations. The utensils were sold in seven different models/designs: alphabet, moon and stars, nature, princess, rockets, trucks and veggies.

Sold at: Major retailers and specialty stores nationwide and at Amazon.com and ebay.com from May 2012 through November 2013 for about $8 a set.

Remedy: Contact the company for a refund.
