

PEER REVIEW PROTECTS Research Quality and Public Trust

The year is 2021. A devastating pandemic has ravaged the globe...

Disinformation has run rampant. And preprint servers offer up data and conclusions, unverified...¹

What force will bring us back to the light?!?!

High-quality peer review protects patients, clinicians and scientists from:

- Plagiarism
- Falsification
- Duplicate publication
- Fabrication

ANESTHESIOLOGY'S peer reviewers will continue to bring you

TRUSTED EVIDENCE

while improving reporting quality, clarity & transparency. Peer review is fighting for you!
