

Share A Room and Save Money

Convention Concepts of Fort Wayne, Indiana is offering a service to our convention attendees that can cut their lodging costs at the Omni International Hotel drastically while providing them with intellectual companionship. This roommate matching service is available for only $5, payable by check or money order to Convention Concepts, 3917 Winfield Court, Fort Wayne, IN 46815. Your payment should reach them at least six weeks before the September 9th reservations deadline. About two weeks before September 9, they will send you the names and addresses of one to three persons of your sex attending the convention who are willing to share a room. There is a money-back guarantee if they are not able to provide you with such a list.

Include with your check the following information: 1) your full name; 2) your title, affiliation and address, including zip code and phone number; 3) any other address for correspondence and additional phone number(s); 4) the fact that you are attending the NABT Convention in Baltimore, Maryland, October 8-12, 1986; 5) the fact that the hotel reservation deadline is September 9; 6) your sex and age range; and 7) indication of preference, smoking or nonsmoking. Be sure to include the following statement and your signature and the date: "I authorize disclosure of my name, address and telephone number to persons attending the conference."
