

Acknowledgments: On the Side of the Gift

This book was conceived during the military dictatorship (1976–1983) in Argentina and written during the return to democracy.

The following made it possible: Gerardo L. Maeso; the support and friendship of my teaching and research group from the University of Buenos Aires; a fellowship from the Council of Humanities at Princeton University (1981); grants from the Social Science Research Council (1982–1983) and from the Guggenheim Foundation (1984–1985).

The translation of this book was carried out with the help of a grant from the Fundación Antorchas, and was published with the assistance of the Frederick W. Hilles Publications Fund of Yale University.

To all of you, many thanks.
