

ILLUSTRATIONS

MAPS

1. American-owned rural properties expropriated between January 1, 1927, and October 6, 1940, by state, 2
2. Baja California Norte and Sonora, highlighting the Mexicali and Yaqui Valleys, 12

FIGURES

1. Elderman's cartoon showing a Mexican hand pulling on Uncle Sam's beard, 4
2. Cartoon depicting Mexico, stuck between popular mobilization for land and the international complications that stem from expropriation, 10
3. President Pascual Ortiz Rubio and former president Plutarco Elías Calles, 20
4. Richardson Construction Co. billboard in Mazatlan, Sinaloa, advertising irrigated land for sale in Sonora's Yaqui Valley, 26
5. American settlers in the Yaqui Valley, 27
6. Marshall Neilan, CRLC's Harry Chandler, and Garza Leal, 31
7. Mexican fieldhand picking cotton, 52
8. Poor housing conditions for Mexicali field workers, 54
9. Women from colonist families in the Mexicali Valley, 59
10. Well-dressed Mexicali Valley colonists, 71
11. Ejidal school in the Mexicali Valley built by Cárdenas's administration, 93
12. Sonoran governor Román Yocupicio (1937–39), 108
13. CTM leader Vicente Lombardo Toledano addressing a rally, 125
14. Cárdenas meets a Mexican peasant, 127

15. Yaqui Indian chief Francisco Pluma Blanca meets with labor leaders, 130
16. Yaqui Indian Deer Dancer, 134
17. Ambassador Daniels listens to Mexican mariachis, 168
18. Vice President Elect Henry Wallace with Cárdenas and Secretary of Agriculture Marte Gómez, 174
19. Cartoon of Cárdenas, blinded by his political obligations and led by his expropriations into international complications, 184
20. Cartoon depicting Mexican foreign policy tactics of delay and obfuscation in the face of U.S. pressure, 196
21. Cordell Hull and Sumner Welles testify before the House Foreign Affairs Committee in June 1939, 201
22. Cartoon of Mexican diplomatic stalling, 221
23. Pro-Cárdenas rally in Mexico City, 224
24. Cartoon stereotyping the cunning nature of Mexican officials, the feminine innocence of American landowners, and the exasperation of Uncle Sam, 228
25. Cartoon envisioning the U.S. government's attempt to get Mexico to pay for expropriated property, 246
26. April 1943 presidential meeting in Monterrey, Nuevo León, 264

T A B L E S

1. American-owned land in the Yaqui Valley, December 1936, 29
2. Non-Mexican population of Baja California Norte, 1930 and 1940, 99
3. Claims filed with the Agrarian Claims Commission (ACC) and the American Mexican Claims Commission (AMCC), 160
4. Geographic distribution of Mexican imports, 1935 and 1940, 177
5. Mexican federal income and expenses, 1934–40, 207
6. Mexico's balance of trade, 1934–40, 243