

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

(Captions have been added by the editors; none appear in the original text.)

Map

Indigenous groups of the Coast of Brazil in 1557, after Hans Staden, figure 3	xiv
--	-----

Figures

1. Sete Katu	5
2. Navigators & God's Providence	18
3. Map of Brazil	19
4. Departure from Lisbon	22
5. The Battle with the White Moors	24
6. A Storm with St. Elmo's Fire	25
7. The Defense of Iguaraçu	28
8. The Battle with the French at Buttugaris	29
9. The Passage from Seville to São Tomé, Guinea	31
10. Arrival in Brazil, near Shipwreck in Supraway	33
11. A Providential Arrival at Santa Catarina	36
12. Shipwreck off São Vicente (Upaunema)	41
13. Tupiniquin and Portuguese try to rescue Staden	43
14. Staden is Captured	48
15. The Bound Animal	52
16. The Weather Shaman	53
17. The Arrival at Uwattibi—Aprasse Dance	56

18. The Dance with the Arasoya	57
19. The Speech of Konyan Bebe to his Hopping Food	63
20. The Attack of the Tupiniquins	65
21. The Angry Moon	66
22. Death and Curing	70
23. The Tupiniquin Trading with the Portuguese	77
24. The Death of the Carijó Slave	80
25. The Maria Ballete refuses Staden	83
26. Meyen Bipe War Camp	85
27. The Pursuit of the Tupiniquins from Brikioka	86
28. The Treatment of Captives at Meyen Bibe	88
29. The Dance with the Captives at Occarasu	90
30. Weather Shamanism and The Cross	93
31. Weather Shamanism and The Fish	94
32. The Attack on a Portuguese Ship at Rio	100
33. The Catherine de Vatteville's Providential Voyage	101
34. Tupinambás	106
35. Palisaded Village	110
36. Fire Sticks	111
37. Ini—hammock	111
38. Fishing	112
39. Weather Shamanism and The Cross (ii)	115
40. Preparation of Drink by Women	118
41. Male Adornment	120
42. The enduap—worn in war and feasting	120
43. The tamaraka	124
44. Induction of the Captive—Aprasse Dance	130
45. The Dance with The Arasoya	130
46. Iwera Pemme	131
47. The Women Drinking and Feasting	133
48. The Women Adorn and Carouse with the Captive	133
49. The Dance with Iwera Pemme	134
50. The Women Carouse with the Captive	134
51. The Women Taunt the Captive	135
52. The Dismemberment of the Flayed Body by The Men	135
53. The Women's Feast	136
54. The Youngsters' Feast	136
55a. The Armadillo—Dattu	138
55b. The Possum—Serwoy	139