

CONTENTS

vii	Acknowledgments
1	Introduction: A History of the Present Charlotte Brunsdon
15	Part I THE PHOTOGRAPH IN CONTEXT Introduction
23	ONE Preface to Black Britain: A Photographic History
26	TWO Media and Message: The Life and Death of Picture Post
34	THREE The Social Eye of Picture Post
54	FOUR The Determinations of News Photographs
78	FIVE Reconstruction Work: Images of Post-war Black Settlement
95	SIX Vanley Burke and the “Desire for Blackness”
101	Part II MEDIA STUDIES AND CULTURAL STUDIES Introduction
111	SEVEN Film Teaching: Liberal Studies
122	EIGHT The World of the Gossip Column
131	NINE A World at One with Itself
141	TEN Introduction to Paper Voices
155	ELEVEN Down with the Little Woman

162	TWELVE Mugging: A Case Study in the Media
169	THIRTEEN Introduction to Media Studies at the Centre
177	FOURTEEN The Whites of Their Eyes: Racist Ideologies and the Media
201	Part III TELEVISION Introduction
209	FIFTEEN Television as a Medium and Its Relation to Culture
237	SIXTEEN Watching the Box
242	SEVENTEEN Gogglebox Gigolos
245	EIGHTEEN TV Types
247	NINETEEN Encoding and Decoding in the Television Discourse
267	TWENTY Media Power: The Double Bind
276	TWENTY-ONE Will Annan Open the Box?
281	TWENTY-TWO Which Public, Whose Service?
297	TWENTY-THREE Black and White in Television
	CODA
317	TWENTY-FOUR Stuart Hall's Desert Island Discs
331	Index
343	Place of First Publication