The date at the head of the first page of each number of BRAIN is that on which the number was closed; after this none but minor textual alterations are permitted. Delay in printing and distribution may, however, retard the actual date of issue.