

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

There are several people and institutions we would like to thank for helping to make this research materialize and to turn the research into a book. Our joint thanks go to the colleagues at FAMU at the Academy of Performing Arts. We would like to mention especially our research colleagues in the project Operational Images and Visual Culture for all sorts of feedback and peer support: Tomáš Dvořák, Tereza Stejskalová, Martin Charvát, Michal Šimůnek, Josef Ledvina, Veronika Jirsová, and Silvie Demartini. We also thank Winchester School of Art for various ways our research and practice have been part of that community over the years. Jussi also wants to thank Aarhus University colleagues and the department of Digital Design and Information Studies for the support, including the AUFF project Design and Aesthetics for Environmental Data and the Digital Aesthetics Research Centre (DARC).

Some of the ideas were discussed in several seminars over the years: at the Winchester School of Art, Goldsmiths University of London, Concordia University in Montreal, IKKM in Weimar, UNED in Madrid, Strelka institute's Terraforming program, NTNU (Trondheim), Stockholm University, and UniArts in Helsinki. We are grateful for the very inspiring thinking and practice of the participants there. Also, many ideas were tested in talks by us. For invitations to give such talks, we would like to thank the Instituto Cervantes, Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofía, Aarhus Architecture School, University of Southern Denmark (Odense), Bath Spa University, University of Bergen, Linköping University, Edinburgh University, Invisible Landscapes conference, and the Re:Source—Media Art Histories conference 2023 in Venice. We also presented some of the material in conferences like 4S and SLISA; thank you to organizers and audiences.

Different parts of the research have been produced either as residencies or commissions in venues such as Matadero Madrid, Medialab-Prado,

Fundación Cerezales Antonino y Cinia, MUSAC Museum of Contemporary Art of Castilla y Leon, transmediale and Fotomuseum Winterthur.
