COMPENDIUM: NEW EVIDENCE-BASED THERAPIES FOR COMPLEX DIABETIC FOOT WOUNDS

The American Diabetes Association's recently published clinical compendium is the third in a series of ADA compendia on the diabetic foot. Previous installments focused on the diagnosis and management of diabetes foot complications and infections. Here, the authors turn their attention to the latest evidence-based therapies for diabetic foot ulcers. This compendium is supported by an unrestricted educational grant from Advanced Oxygen Therapy, Inc. (AOTI). To access this and other clinical compendia for free, visit <https://diabetesjournals.org/compendia>.
