exercise to a programme of tilt training; and (iii) physical manoeuvres such as leg crossing or isometric arm tensions.

For this reason, in NMS, physical training should not be recommended as monotherapy. It can be complementary to other interventions.

Conflict of interest: none declared.

References

