

To the professors who inspired me as a student at UMass Boston's Marriage and Family Therapy program: Drs. Gonzalo Bacigalupe, Alisa Beaver, Esmaeil Mahdavi, MaryAnna Ham, Dawn Shelton, and Margarita Tarragona. Your insightful life lessons transformed how I interact with others. May you continue to inspire your students to learn, grow, and reach out to those in need.

To my wonderful husband Jim, my soul mate and inspiration, who makes me dig deep to be a better wife to a person who has diabetes.
