Aims and Scope

European Heart Journal - Cardiovascular Imaging is a monthly international peer reviewed journal dealing with Cardiovascular Imaging. It is an official publication of the European Association of Cardiovascular Imaging, a registered branch of the European Society of Cardiology.

The journal aims to publish the highest quality material, both scientific and clinical from all areas of cardiovascular imaging including echocardiography, magnetic resonance, computed tomography, nuclear and invasive imaging. A range of article types will be considered, including original research, reviews, editorials, image focus, letters and recommendation papers from relevant groups of the European Society of Cardiology. In addition it provides a forum for the exchange of information on all aspects of cardiovascular imaging.

Authors wishing to submit to European Heart Journal - Cardiovascular Imaging should refer to the instructions to authors (https://academic.oup.com/ehjcimaging/pages/General_Instructions) and submit papers to the online submission system (http://www.editorialmanager.com/ehjc/)

Implementing environmentally friendly policies and practices wherever possible. Please see https://academic.oup.com/journals/pages/about_us/ethical_policies for further information on environmental and ethical policies.
