Instructions to authors

Scope and policy of Carcinogenesis

Carcinogenesis is an international journal dedicated to publishing original research that advances our understanding of the etiology, pathogenesis, detection, prevention and therapy of cancer. The journal publishes papers that present new findings on the mechanisms of cancer development in general (including chemical, viral, physical and genetic mechanisms of cancer causation, environmental cancer research, etc.), and on the mechanisms of chemoprevention, nutrition and cancer, etc., and on Carcinogenesis (including prevention, cancer eradication, intervention, and new treatment modalities). Carcinogenesis also publishes papers presenting new findings on the detection, formation, identification and quantification of carcinogenic environmental mutagens. The Editors may from time to time decide what articles Authors wishing to propose or submit a review article should contact the Editorial Office at carcinogenesis.editorialoffice@oup.com before submitting.

Submission of manuscripts

Carcinogenesis accepts submissions online through http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/acarc. For any queries please contact the editorial office at http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/acarc. Submission of a paper implies that it reports unpublished work and that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. If previously published tables, illustrations or 200 words of text are to be included, they must be clearly marked as such. Authors are responsible for obtaining the necessary copyright assignments.

Proofs

Authors will be sent proof pages, it is important to include a current email address to help with this process. To avoid delays in publication, proofs should be checked immediately for typographical errors and returned to the publishers by express (special delivery) within 3 days. Additionally, corrections may be sent via fax +44 (0) 1865 353773. Essential changes of an extensive nature may be made by insertion of a note added in proof. A charge will be made to authors who insist on amendment in the proof aside from the page-proof stage.

Abbreviations

Abbreviations should be in their final form when they are submitted as part of the text. However, the title of the manuscript must be free of abbreviations and reference citations. Please note that the journal does not accept Microsoft Word 2007 documents at this time. Please use Word's "Save As" option to save your document as an older (.doc) file type. Any word processing system must be capable of producing text and reference citations provided that the Journal is notified and acknowledged as the original source.

Copy Editors

All pages should be numbered consecutively with Roman numerals, they should be in upper case and they should not be indented. All lines should be tabled including any line drawings. Should you decide to insert a line drawing, please do not count it as a contribution to the page. Any additional explanatory information in the table should be placed below the table and should be clear and concise. All tables should be numbered consecutively with Roman numerals, they should be in upper case and they should not be indented. No line drawings are allowed.