when prices are highest and the farmer desires maximum production. This condition introduces many new problems.

Mr. Lee has summarized these factors in his paper which constitutes the principal contribution of the committee this year. This paper, which is published on page 196, reveals that there are many factors to be studied and that there is great need for further information.

M. A. R. KELLY, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON COOPERATIVE RESEARCH

A Study of Factors Which Influence the Quality and Palatability of Meat

A comprehensive report on this project was presented by P. F. Trowbridge, chairman of the Committee, which showed 24 states cooperating with the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The report has been mimeographed by the Division of Animal Husbandry, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Copies of it can be secured by members by writing to the Division.

MINUTES OF THE TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING

Saturday Afternoon, December 1, 1928

The twenty-first annual business meeting of the Society was called to order by President Sheets, who read the following proposed amendment to the Constitution and explained the reasons for its being offered:

Amendment: Paragraph 4: Add to the second line “two or more regional vice-presidents.” Add to the sixth line “regional vice-presidents.”

Moved by Professor Dodson that the amendment of the Constitution be adopted. Seconded and carried unanimously.