PTSD NIGHTMARES: PRAZOSIN AND ATYPICAL ANTIPSYCHOTICS

The authors of "PTSD Nightmares: Prazosin and Atypical Antipsychotics" discuss nightmares and other sleep disturbances associated with posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD).

A reminder that a special subscription price is available to Current Psychiatry, a monthly peer-reviewed publication, and the leading source of practical, evidence-based information for healthcare professionals treating psychiatric patients. Thanks to the CPNP partnership with Current Psychiatry, CPNP members can receive a year of Current Psychiatry at a cost of $24, over 77% less than the normal subscription rate.

ARE YOU AMONG THE 1 IN 6?

CPNP is grateful to the 239 people who have volunteered for the association in some capacity during the committee year that has just concluded.

Volunteer contributions ranged from service on the Board and standing committees/editorial boards to serving as authors for the Mental Health Clinician to reviewing abstract submissions for our Annual Meeting scientific poster session to assisting with field testing and cut-off scores to facilitating Annual Meeting Roundtables to participating in Annual Meeting student programming. Volunteers provide the manpower and leadership to ensure that CPNP provides current information and worthwhile and expansive products and services. Join us in celebrating our 2011-2012 volunteers. All members can contribute as volunteers and expand their professional network and skills. Simply keep your CPNP volunteer profile up to date in My CPNP so that we can call on you as opportunities become available.

CPNP UNIVERSITY COMPLIMENTARY COURSE: SEIZURES AND PSYCHIATRY

Each quarter, CPNP offers 1 CPNP University session FREE of charge to CPNP members. This quarter's COMPLIMENTARY CPNP University member product is Seizures and Psychiatry delivered at the 2011 Annual Meeting by speaker Barry Gidal.

This knowledge-based course provides access to the speaker's presentation and 1 hour of ACPE continuing education credit upon successful completion of the required online examination available through September 30, 2012. Once you select any CPNP University Course, the presentation will always be available to you through your My CPNP page even after the ACPE eligibility has expired.

You can learn more about this course and speaker Barry Gidal at the CPNP University course page.
