

ERRATUM: In Stephen Marini's review of American Harmony: Inspired Choral Miniatures from New England, Appalachia, the Mid-Atlantic, the South, and the Midwest in our previous number, the QUARTERLY erroneously listed the sales price of the book as $100. Professor Nym Cooke has advised us that the volumes sell for $65 and, to make the volumes more available to choral groups, sales of five or more copies purchased directly from David R. Godine, Publisher, are discounted fifty percent ($32.50). The editors regret the error and applaud the publisher's encouragement of shape-note music.
