Digital Scholarship in the Humanities

Journal of the Alliance of Digital Humanities Organizations

Volume 32 Number 4 2017

Contents

Original Articles
Engaging the museum space: Mobilizing visitor engagement with digital content creation
Claire Bailey-Ross, Steven Gray, Jack Ashby, Melissa Terras, Andrew Hudson-Smith and Claire Warwick 689

The preliminaries project: Geography, networks, and publication in the Spanish Golden Age
David M. Brown, Adriana Soto-Corominas and Juan Luis Suárez 709

Paw law in random symbolic sequences
Yong Cao, Fei Xiong, Youjie Zhao, Yongke Sun, Xiaoguang Yue, Xin He and Lichao Wang 733

Multi-Retranslation corpora: Visibility, variation, value, and virtue
Tom Cheesman, Kevin Flanagan, Stephan Thiel, Jan Rybicki, Robert S. Lareme, Jonathan Hope and Avraham Roos 739

Guiding automatic MT evaluation by means of linguistic features
Elisabet Comelles, Victoria Arranz and Irene Castellón 761

An effective named entity similarity metric for comparing data from multiple sources with varying syntax
David Croft, Stephen Brown and Simon Coupland 779

The two Oldcastles of London
Hartmut Ilsemann 788

Lemmatization for variation-rich languages using deep learning
Mike Kestemont, Guy de Pauw, Renske van Nie and Walter Daelemans 797

Computer experiments on the Khirbet Qeiyafa ostracon
Eythan Levy and Frédéric Pluquet 816

Exploring the prominence of Romeo and Juliet’s characters using weighted centrality measures
Víctor Hugo Masías, Paula Baldwin, Sigifredo Laengle, Augusto Vargas and Fernando A. Crespo 837

In the Garden and in the Ark: The belles lettres, aetiological tales, and narrative explanatory trajectories—The concept of an architecture combining phono-semantic matching, and NLP story-generation
Ephraim Nissan 859
Digitally reconstructing the Great Parchment Book: 3D recovery of fire-damaged historical documents

Accidental discovery, intentional inquiry: Leveraging linked data to uncover the women of jazz
M. Cristina Pattuelli, Karen Hwang and Matthew Miller